PROFILE SUMMARY

I am a first-year English major student at Sidi Mohamed Ben Abdellah University with a strong foundation in English language skills, including a B2 level proficiency. My background includes additional English studies at the American English Center, where I developed advanced skills in communication, reading, and writing. I have experience volunteering in my high school to assist with English-related administrative tasks. I am passionate about teaching children and eager to apply my skills and enthusiasm to support their learning and development.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Club Leader

2023

Led the English Language Club, organizing meetings, activities, and events to foster interest in English among students. Developed engaging programs to promote language learning and practice.

PASSIONS

My passion for marketing and communication drives me to explore innovative ways to connect with audiences. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to email marketing campaigns, where I can leverage my creativity and analytical skills to engage recipients effectively. I believe that a well-crafted email marketing strategy can significantly enhance customer engagement and drive business growth.
